

GREENMAN, LACY, KLEIN, HINDS, WEISER

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Amber Crothall

Of Counsel

Ms. Crothall's practice includes business and real estate transactions, litigation and bankruptcy. Specific litigation matters have included contract disputes, real estate nondisclosure actions, easement issues and mechanics' liens and construction disputes. She also has experience in entity formation and operating issues. She has drafted and reviewed complex real property contracts and transactions, commercial and residential leases and CC&Rs. The majority of her bankruptcy practice is debtor representation.

EDUCATION

B.A. IN ENGLISH FROM SANTA
CLARA UNIVERSITY

J.D. FROM SANTA CLARA
UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Ms. Crothall is a native of Oceanside, CA. She received her B.A. in English in 1994 from Santa Clara University, and her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law in 2003. While in law school she worked as a judicial extern in the United States District Court, Northern District of California, for the Honorable Jeremy Fogel. She was also a Research Editor for the Santa Clara University Law Review, and a Public Interest and Social Justice Law Scholar. After graduation, she joined the firm Miller, Morton, Caillat & Nevis, LLP in San Jose, California as an Associate, specializing in construction and property law. Since 2009, she has been working in Oceanside as a civil litigation attorney, and is currently of counsel with Greenman, Lacy, Klein, Hinds, Weiser and Heffron.

Ms. Crothall served on the North County Bar Association Board of Directors from 2014-2016. She regularly volunteers with the Bar Association's programs in the community, including the Youth in Court and On My Honor programs, and volunteers at the Law Day free legal clinic each year. She is also the attorney coach for the California State University San Marcos mock trial team.